Spirituality

How do I know?

Reflect on your daily life and hear what God is saying to you and calling you to?

Who am I?

The beloved of God.

Why community?

We can project our thoughts on God.
In a caring community we are accountable and correctable.

What then?

When you know you are loved by God you are called to share the experience of love with others, especially those in need.